

Public Relations

- Published 2 articles in Knysna Plett Herald (14 Dec 2023 and 1 July 2024)
- Sale of Ptns 71 and 72 to WWF also reported on Netwerk24 as well as Good Things Guy
- Newsletter published in March this year
- Presentations made to BRA, Belvidere Home Owners and Buffelsbaai Rate Payers in December 2023

Thanks to everyone who contributed

Social Media

- o Website

<https://westernheadsgoukamma.co.za/>

Social Media

- o Facebook

Western Heads Goukamma Conservancy

138 likes • 159 followers

Social Media

Plant of the Month on Facebook

Western Heads Goukamma Conservancy

23 July at 17:19 · 🌐

Our flower for July is the Brown Sage (Salvia aurea) or Bruinsalie. It has interesting brown flowers with lots of nectar, and is a favourite for sunbirds, bees, butterflies and other insects. Read this informative article to learn more about the plant and how it is designed to use sunbirds as pollinators.

<https://pza.sanbi.org/salvia-aurea>

Signage

- White Bridge

Fell down twice last year during high winds and rain – refastened in a ‘more secure way’

22/10/2023

Signage

Sign at entrance to Barloworld

Proposed sign at entrance to Ptn 71

Signage

- Proposed small sign for members to be put up on gate or on entrance to property

WESTERN HEADS / GOUKAMMA
CONSERVANCY

TABLE MOUNTAIN FUND

funding fynbos

WWF

Membership

- Anyone who subscribes to the Conservancy's principles
- Membership forms available on the website
- Membership costs:
 - Landowners – R100 per year (were R50 per year)
 - Residents of residential nodes – R50 per year
 - Organisations – e.g. Homeowner's or Ratepayers Organisations – R250 per year

Donations are welcome!

Membership statistics

- Landowners – 12 out of 60 = 20%
- Organisations – 6 out of 6 (Brenton Blue Trust, BRA, LBRA, Belvidere, Buffelsbaai and Southern Right)
- Private individuals – 8
- Other entities owning land in the Conservancy – Cape Nature, Knysna Municipality, WWF, Dept of Public Works

We actually only have 26 paid up members!