

Social Media

- Website:

<https://westernheadsgoukamma.co.za/>

Social Media

- Facebook

Western Heads Goukamma Conservancy

138 likes • 159 followers

Like

Search

Social Media

Plant of the Month on Facebook

Signage

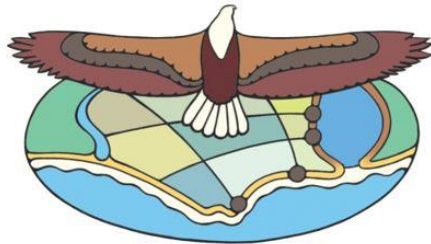

Four signage boards were erected during the past four years

Signage

Two designs for small signs at property entrances:

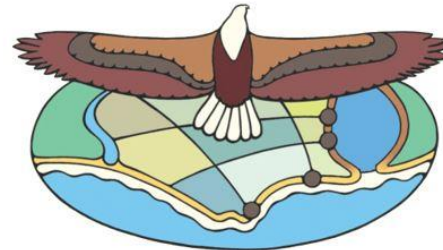

This Property is Committed to Conservation

WESTERN HEADS / GOUKAMMA
CONSERVANCY

PROUD MEMBER

WESTERN HEADS / GOUKAMMA
CONSERVANCY

Which one do you prefer?

Signage

- One more large sign for the Whale Watchers Viewpoint using a Google Earth image to show the extent of the Knysna Sand Fynbos and other landmarks

Newspaper articles

- 2022:

- At the launch of the TMF Project, in September 2022, an article explaining the reason for the project was published in the Knysna Plett Herald
- <https://www.knysnaplett Herald.com/News/Article/Local-News/coming-together-for-fynbos-202209220650>

- 2023:

- An article, explaining the importance of the Knysna Sand Fynbos was published at the end of 2023 in the Knysna Plett Herald:
- <https://www.knysnaplett Herald.com/News/Article/Local-News/a-fine-fynbos-project-indeed-202312140947>

- 2024:

- Two articles were published regarding the purchase by the WWF of two properties within the Conservancy:
- <https://www.knysnaplett Herald.com/News/Article/Local-News/biodiversity-treasure-secured-202407010841>
- Network 24 also published an article regarding this purchase:
- An article regarding the purchase by the WWF of two properties within the Conservancy was published on 5 July 2024 on Network 24.